North Island Seychelles

Best for: Exclusivity

Location: This tiny granite island is a sanctuary where Seychellois wildlife is rehabilitated – there are nearly 100 free-roaming giant tortoises, endemic birds and aquatic life offshore.

Décor: 10 Presidential Villas (plus the sprawling Villa North or No.11) are constructed from reclaimed woods, such as takamaka trees, pine and ylang-ylang and topped with thatched roofs.

Clientele: Eco-conscious A-listers and royalty such as George and Amal Clooney, and Prince William and Kate Middleton

Rooms: Villas come with a spacious bedroom, kitchen and pantry, sun deck and a good-sized Jacuzzi. Fit-outs include pebble and bark sculptures, billowing curtains and fine linens.

Food & Drink: The Island Piazza serves sophisticated dishes in a picturesque setting and is a good place to meet fellow guests. Many opt for private in-villa dining, beach barbecues, picnics or set-ups in the grape cellar.

Strengths: Impeccable attention to detail by personal villa attendants, the breath-taking setting.

Weaknesses: All that exclusivity does not come cheap

Wi-Fi: Free

Price: Presidential Villas from AED 25,308

Contact: North Island; 00248-4293 110, north-island.com
