Feeling Rich? Check Out Some of the Most Expensive Suites in the World for a Holiday

BY SOUHYADIPDA BANERJEE Saturday, 02 December 2017

Travel in style and indulge in the best that the world of luxury has to offer!

2017 is nearing an end and it's time to plan a travel again - to ring in the New Year, of course! The choices are aplenty but if you want to make it really special, be prepared to spend a fortune. These are some destinations that are the playground of the rich, the reckless and the famous. If you want the A-list lifestyle and money isn't an issue, check right in to these super luxe, super expensive and ultra-private suites in some of the plushiest properties around the world.

VILLA NORTH ISLAND, NORTH ISLAND, SEYCHELLES

Located 30 kilometers from the main island of Mahe, North Island Seychelles enjoys a spectacular view of the ocean from a secluded abode of luxury. Perched on granite boulders overlooking the waters, Villa North Island is the embodiment of serenity.

What's Special

At 750sqm, Villa North Island offers ample room for your mind to float free and for all your island fantasies to become a stylish, spacious reality. The villa is equipped with a master bedroom suite with an oversized custom-made bed, his and hers changing rooms, a spa bathroom complete with massage bed and indoor and outdoor shower and a private study and library that converts into a cinema lounge, just to name a few. Villa North Island has been designed differently to accommodate the incline along the extreme northern side of the Anse d'est Beach and is secretly tucked away in the Takamaka forest.

The beach view from this Villa is truly spectacular and it is this, together with the unique manipulation of the deck design and space that separates this remarkable Villa from the rest.
