Whether you're you're inspired by tranquil blue waters, picturesque landscapes or world-class cuisine, every traveller dreams of hotels like these

These days, various hotel booking websites and travel agents make it easy for globetrotters to book hotel stays around the world. In addition, voucher sites like DEALSLANDS allow people to even book even the most lavish hotels at a more affordable rate.

So, could you list your five favourite luxury hotels around the world? If the answer is yes, why not leave a comment below and tell us if you agree with these choices.

5. North Island Seychelles

Located in a classic honeymoon destination, North Island is one of the most picture-perfect places to stay in Seychelles. The private island resort has 11 striking handcrafted villas perched behind the island's immaculate white sands and turquoise waters, accentuating the grandeur of the hideaway. All the villas at North Island have an adjacent private garden and beach, and the plunge pools and outdoor showers add to the five-star castaway vibe.
